ORDER OF PROTECTION.

Local members of the supreme lodge of the New England Order of Protection and the newly elected representatives from the Connecticut grand lodge have received notification that the 22d annual session of the order will be held in Boston, Tuesday, May 11, in Intercolonial hall, Dudley street, to hear and act upon the reports of officers and committees and to elect officers for the coming year. The meeting will be called to order at 10 a. m. with Supreme Warden Frederick T. Peabody as chairman.

J. L. Wheeler of New London, John J. O'Brien of South Coventry and M. J. Foley of the city, the two latter having been elected at the late grand lodge session, are representatives from this section of the state.

ROYAL ARCANAUM.

Norwich council No. 724 held its 21st meeting Tuesday evening at the Buckingham Memorial, going upstairs and vacating the post room to accommodate the big St. Mary's parish whist which was being held there. This move was greatly appreciated by the whist people. The council took action on the death claim of Rufus T. Marshall. The last death benefit to be paid before this was for the late John E. Warner.

The committee on finance of the supreme council, just concluding its semi-annual examination, offers to the membership the following:

The members of the Royal Arcanaum are to be congratulated upon the results of the past year. Considering that the whole country has experienced one of the worst panics in history, with general business at a standstill, railroads abridging expenses, manufacturers closed or running on part time, the growth and prosperity of our organization would naturally be affected, and therefore a practical sustaining of our membership, and a wonderful growth in our emergency fund is most gratifying and encouraging. That our condition is so favorable entitles those in active management to our grateful appreciation.

It is the duty of the committee on finance to carefully examine the books of the supreme treasurer, supreme auditor and supreme trustees, and believing that the results of our investigations would be appreciated by the members, we would state that there were 12,457 benefit certificates issued during the past year; the payment for death claims during the year was indicated in 2,241 claims, amounting to $7,686,740.90, and during that time the emergency fund was increased over $1,000,000 by the addition of $850,000 from the supreme treasurer and interest of $151,865.24 on the invested funds.

FORESTERS.

Court Quinebaug, No. 128, had three applications at its meeting Tuesday evening in Foresters' hall. The meeting was adjourned after a session of half an hour so as to allow time to be used for the St. Mary's parish whist.

REBEKAHS.

Hodge lodge, No. 21, held a special whist evening Wednesday in Odd Fellows' hall in the Olympic building, having eighteen tables playing and enjoying a pleasant social evening. When scores were counted up the following were found to be the prize winners: First, Miss Alice Smith, 21, a jewel cabinet; F. A. Davis, 44, watch fob; Second, Mrs. B. Saunders, 40, a pocket watch; James Cunningham, 41, a stickpin; Consolations, Mrs. Daniel Dean, 15, a bon bon dish; Joseph Lane, 18, a banana; and C. H. Calkins, 40, a cake and ice cream were served.

At the next meeting of the lodge there is to be work in the full degree, at which time it is expected to be a large attendance.

HIBERNIANS.

Division No. 1, with President Michael J. Dwyer in the chair, held its regular meeting with a good attendance Sunday afternoon in Hibernian hall. Two new members were initiated, two applications received, and two names voted on. As an attractive feature for the meetings, it was decided to conduct a series of debates or discussions at the first meeting of each month, these to be under the management of the officers. With this forty-five tourney, which is now under way, and in which Division No. 1 has the lead over Division No. 2, the two divisions have the social interest well sustained.

Players for Division No. 1 are the following: M. J. Dwyer, Michael O'Connor, D. J. O'Neill, John Fenton, John Sullivan, John Brown, John E. Donnelly, Patrick T. Murphy, Michael H. O'Neill, Dennis Brown, M. H. Delaney, Daniel O'Connell.

A party of nineteen tables was assembled for whist in Foresters' hall Monday evening, under the auspices of the Neosho club connected with Sebequash council, No. 11, and a fine time was enjoyed at the game and in a social way. First prize among the women was taken with a score of 47 by Mrs. H. Clement, who received a jewel case; Mrs. Louis Manchester received a 25c watch; and Mrs. Anna Gille received a mustard jar as the consolation. Among the men E. A. Kline's score of 47 captured a stickpin, and cuff buttons as first prize. Ernest Bossey and James Cunningham, who had 45 points, settled second prize by cutting in on which Mr. Cunningham and Mr. Bossey a pack of cards. The consolation was Robert McKelvie's a shaving mug. Calkins and Calkins were the next meeting of the council in the hall.

EASTERN STAR.

Wednesday evening Sebequash chapter, No. 57, held its regular meeting at the Buckingham Memorial, at which Worthy Matron Dorothea W. Balcom presided. The evening was well balanced favorably. There was a good attendance. A social time which was greatly enjoyed was the music of a phonograph operated by Herman Sears of the Plant-Cadden company. The selection were very fine, and won the enthusiastic praise of all present.

Columbus in Bridgeport are making elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the delegates to the biennial state convention of the order, to be held in the Stratfield on Tuesday, May 11.

The delegates to the convention will reach Bridgeport on Sunday afternoon, May 9, to witness the conferring of the first, second and third degrees of the order upon a class of fifty candidates in Eagles' hall. The work will be put on by the celebrated degree team of Brooklyn, N. Y., in charge of District Deputy Daniel J. Griffin and staff.

After the initiation, which will continue the entire afternoon and a part of the early evening, the candidates will be tendered a banquet in the hall. The evening of Monday night a ball will be given in Eagles' hall under the auspices of Bridgeport chapter, Knights of Columbus.

The convention will open in the ball room of the Stratfield on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, and will adjourn at noon for lunch. The council will reconvene at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. An effort will be made to dispose of all of the business in one day. There are many matters of importance to the order to be transacted. The election of officers is expected to develop some lively contests.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The annual field day exercises of the Connecticut brigade, U. R. K. P., will be held at the baseball grounds, Savin Rock, New Haven, on Saturday, June 12, at which place the brigade is ordered to assemble in dress uniform at 10 a. m.

An effort has been made to obtain the use of the state camp ground at Naugatuck for a week's encampment of the brigade. It has been the hope of the brigade that the use of the state camp ground at Naugatuck for a week's encampment of the brigade would be a great benefit to the order. This was not favorably reported upon and that project was of necessity abandoned. It has been the custom annually to assemble for one day's routine, and New Haven was selected this year for convenience of access.

The order of exercises at New Haven this year will be as follows: Company drills at 10, battalion drills at 11, regional drills at 12, followed immediately by brigade review, after which will take place competitive company drill, for which three prizes are offered. The headquarters of the brigade will be at the Sae View house. The music will be furnished by a band.

AMERICAN MECHANICS.

Miantonomo council, No. 39, held a special meeting Friday evening in Pythian hall, which was an open meeting and smoker for the members and their friends, for the purpose of hearing State Organizer Thomas F. Gilmore. There was an attendance of nearly forty, who more than half were non-members, and there were several from America council, No. 84, of Montville.

Frank Q. Smith, chairman of the committee of arrangements, called the meeting to order and introduced Organizer Gilmore, who is an ex-national councillor of the order and was the organizer of this council twenty years ago. Mr. Gilmore made an eloquent address in which he set forth the distinctive Americanism of the organization, standing for the highest types and highest ideals of American citizenship. To the support in American birth, and it should have the same claim upon loyal Americans as do the societies formed by the foreign born who come to these shores. It is a supporter of liberty and freedom and America's cherished institutions, and has no principle but the principle of liberty-loving American can object to.

Organizer Gilmore explained the three kinds of membership—the basic, the regular and the honorary, and the benefits and the honor, which is what is most indicative. He strongly urged a big boost in membership for Miantonomo council, and invited the members to join in the spirit of loyalty, patriotism and devotion, which were the moving ideas of the organization.

One of the most interesting features of the evening was a talk by Ashley T. Boon, past state councillor, who was honored with a banquet at the hotel, and who also presented him the merits of the order and repeated the invitation to join.

It was announced that another smoker would be held next Friday evening in the same place and a general invitation was extended to all to attend. The members are to see good accessions to the membership list as a result of the two meetings and Organizer Gilmore, who is working in this city in the interests of the order.

SELECTION OF JUDGES MEETS WITH APPROVAL.

All Sections of State Satisfied Gardiner Greene is Excellent Judicial Timor.

The following editorial comments on the appointment of Gardiner Greene of this city to the superior court bench show the high estimation in which he is held about the state and the regard of his qualifications for the position:

Judicial in Temperament.

Governor Weeks is to be congratulated upon the appointment of Marcus H. Holcomb of Southington and Gardiner Greene of Norwich to the superior bench. Mr. Holcomb is a well known figure in the life of the state and has the confidence of all as a man and a lawyer. Greene is one of the best equipped lawyers in the eastern section of the state and is essentially judicial in his temperament. Another at the bar, he has seen service in the employ of the state and is well grounded in its history.—New Haven Journal-Courier.

Just of Proved Ability.

Mr. Greene, though not so well known in this part of the state, is a jurist of proved ability, who has attended to his legal work with high order. None but words of praise will be heard in any quarter concerning Mr. Greene. That his business is the law, and he is beyond a doubt. The state will be benefited by his appointment to the bench. His qualifications are excellent. His evident qualities are all in his favor.—New Haven Register.

Is "Tall Timber."

Hon. Gardiner Greene of Norwich is also "tall timber." He is a citizen of the highest character and professional attainments. His scholarly mind is highly developed and his work on the bench is certain to be of high order. None but words of praise will be heard in any quarter concerning Mr. Greene. That his business is the law, and he is beyond a doubt. The state will be benefited by his appointment to the bench. His qualifications are excellent. His evident qualities are all in his favor.—New Haven Register.

Measure Up to Standard.

In the appointment of Attorney General Holcomb and Gardiner Greene to the bench of the superior court, Governor Weeks recognizes the claims of ability, locality and political service. Both gentlemen have high standing as lawyers, both have been closely associated with republican political progress and both, by their residences, have expressed earnest desire for recognition. They measure well up to the standard of the Connecticut bench, and their elevation will probably have Chess and Checks.

Chess was originally the game of kings, the game of shahs. The word "shah" became in old French "eschec," while the old French "eschec" was further corrupted into "chess."

The more original form chess has likewise been preserved, though we little think of it when we draw a cheque, or when we suffer a check, or when we speak of the chancellor of the exchequer. The great object of the chess player is to protect the king, and when the king is in danger the opponent is obliged to say "check," i. e., shah, the king. After this the various meanings of check, cheque, or exchequer become easily intelligible. Exchequer, or socacorum, the name of the chess board, was afterward used for the checkered cloth on which accounts were calculated by means of counters.

The Right Sort of Wife.

An Atchison man recently refused a proposal of marriage. "I like you," he said to the girl, "but you have too many friends. There would be too many at our wedding, for you would be afraid not to invite them all, and your many friends wouldn't be satisfied unless they made fools of us by playing some kind of crazy pranks on us when we started on our wedding journey. You have so many friends that we would get all kinds of wedding presents that we don't want, and would be kept poor in future trying to pay back when the donors got married. You are nice, and I like you, but what I am looking for in a wife is a woman who is friendless."—Atchison Globe.

A Lost Bet.

An Irish waiter named Kenny was noted for his wit and ready answers. A party of gentlemen who were staying at the hotel heard of Kenny's wit, and one of them made a bet that he would say something Kenny couldn't answer at once.

A bottle of champagne was ordered; the one who had made the bet took hold of the bottle and commenced to open it. The cork came out with a "bang," and flew into Kenny's mouth.

"Ah," he said, "that is not the way to cork."

Kenny took the cork out of his mouth and replied: "No, but it's the way to 'kill' Kenny."—Idea.
